BC Dairy Association Scholarship Recipients

BC Dairy Association is dedicated to assisting worthy student-athletes in their desire to attend an accredited post-secondary institution. This scholarship rewards seven student athletes who exemplify school spirit, practice a healthy lifestyle, and engage with their community.

BC School Sports in partnership with BC Dairy wishes to congratulate the seven scholarship recipients. We wish them the best of luck in their post-secondary endeavors.

Thank you for your contributions to high school sports.

Raymond Nguyen

Sports: Badminton, Basketball, Soccer, Ultimate

Athletic Accolades: Represented Gladstone Secondary multiple times at provincials

Academic Accolades: Maintained Academics

Raymond Nguyen exemplifies dedication and leadership both on and off the field, making him an outstanding individual. Throughout his high school career, Raymond has actively participated in sports, not only as an athlete but also as a coach and organizer for younger teams and intramural events. His commitment to athletic leadership is further underscored by his role in organizing school-wide athletic events and his voluntary work in Chinatown, where he preserves Asian cultural traditions through Chinese Dragon and Lion Dancing. Raymond's academic achievements are solid, complemented by his involvement in community service activities and his demonstrated leadership skills in various capacities. His passion for sports and service, highlights how these experiences have shaped him into a capable leader poised to contribute positively to his community and beyond.

"She is confident yet humble; she is a lifelong learner; and she is a global citizen," is how the Principal at WL Seaton Secondary describes Evelie Colclough. An accomplished athlete and leader, she has showcased her athletic prowess through her participation in numerous sports, earning accolades such as team captaincies and a bronze medal in provincials for volleyball. Beyond sports, Evelie has dedicated over 300 hours to coaching and refereeing, demonstrating her leadership on and off the field. Her academic achievements, including the second-highest overall grade average in her graduating class, underscore her commitment to excellence in all endeavours. Moreover, Evelie has been deeply engaged in community service, organizing events such as the Block Out Cancer fundraiser and leading other initiatives. Her passion for athletics, coupled with her leadership and academic prowess, positions Evelie as a standout student poised to make significant contributions in her future academic and athletic pursuits.
