For IMMEDIATE RELEASE

BC School Sports Partners with X-treme Sportswear as the Exclusive Apparel Supplier for the BCSS Rugby Championships

Burnaby, BC – BC School Sports is proud to announce a partnership with X-treme Sportswear as the Exclusive Apparel Supplier for the BC School Sports Rugby Championships. This collaboration, set to commence this year and extend through 2026, will bring a level of excellence befitting the pinnacle of high school rugby in BC, and one of the largest rugby events in all of Canada.

The partnership between BCSS and X-treme Sportswear marks a significant milestone as X-treme returns as a partner for the tournament, having supported the event for the past 18 years. As highlighted by X-treme Sportswear CEO Eddie Evans, “X-treme Sportswear is delighted to be back for the 2023 edition.”

The BC School Sports Rugby Championships is set to host 88 teams in boys and girls, 15s and 7s with over 1,700 student-athletes representing their school. It is the largest high school rugby event in Canada. As part of their continued commitment to the development and success of the tournament, X-treme will provide jerseys for the Championship All-star team. These jerseys are exclusively designed by the acclaimed Haida artist, Clarence Mills, who has generously donated his artwork for this special occasion.

X-treme Sportswear takes pride in its Canadian roots and commitment to sustainable practices. Being a 100% Canadian-owned company, X-treme manufactures their garments in their own factory, ensuring ethical production and utilizing sustainable recycled materials. With two decades of experience in providing custom sportswear globally, X-treme Sportswear has established itself as a trusted and innovative industry leader.

The partnership between BC School Sports and X-treme Sportswear marks an exciting chapter in the growth and development of high school rugby in British Columbia. This collaboration aims to provide exceptional opportunities and experiences for student-athletes, support growth, and foster a lifelong love for the sport.
